

DELILAH

I saw the light on the night as I passed by her window

I had the flickering thoughts of love on my mind

I loved that woman

But she dismissed me and so I went out of my mind

My my etc. De De etc.

I could see that girl had looked straight through me

But I was lost like a slave that no man could free.

At break of day as the light made me brave I was waiting

I crossed the street to her house and she opened the door

She stood there laughing

I stroked my beard with my hand and she laughed some more

My my etc. De De etc.

So before my beard gets caught in your door

Forgive me Delilah I just could not shave any more.

Oh oh oh & a wo wo wo

She stood there laughing

I stroked my beard with my hand and she laughed some more

My my etc. De De etc.

So before my facial hair reaches the floor

Forgive me Delilah I just could not shave any more.

Forget me Delilah I just could not shave any more.
